On last Saturday evening friends and neighbors to about the number of twenty-five, gathered at the home of Mr. Noah Stivison in honor of his eldest son, Edward to remind him that they had not forgotten that it was his twentieth birthday anniversary, and to say he was not surprised would be an error.

Music was furnished by the Messrs. Orla, William and Homer Wolf and Guy Wright of Old town, while Misses Goldie Scholl and Stella Wright presided at the organ. The evening was spent in out-door games and also some house games in which all took part.

The following is the list of the names of those present: The Messrs. Bessie and Clara Ruff, Goldie Scholl, Estella Wright, Stella Poling, Esther Kreider, Edith Wolf, Beulah Poling, Estella Carrie, Ida Stivison and Nora Scholl; Messrs. Jesse Fickel, Levi Wolf Frank Poling, Thomas McLin, William and Orla Wolf, Guy Wright, Wm. Cannon, Homer Wolf and Edward and W. M. Stivison.

Refreshments were served by the host. He received many beautiful and useful presents and also several beautiful post-cards.

ESTELLA PEARL SATER.

Standing by the Governor.

A flood of congratulatory letters from all sections of the state has been pouring in on Governor Harmon on account of the probe he so vigorously thrust into graft scandals at the state house. These letters come in about equal numbers from Republicans and Democrats who unhesitatingly and unreservedly express their approval of the governor's course. The following letter from an old-time and influential Republican is a fair sample of the rest:

"I want to congratulate you upon what you are doing to give the people of Ohio a clean administration in public affairs. It is what we have needed in the state for a long time and is bound to do a world of good. You are on the right track and I hope you will not stop until everything has been found out and the truth is known. You promised this in your campaign, and you are keeping your word. The people are with you, and you are sure to be re-elected and then become the nominee of your party for the presidency."

Yet in defiance of public sentiment so faithfully expressed in this letter the Republican bosses hope to undermine Governor Harmon's popularity with the people in general by shrewd manipulation of the legislature during the coming session. It doesn't seem possible that they will succeed no matter what games of peanut politics they may attempt to play. A more probable result is that they will convince the people that the right thing to do next year will be to elect the entire ticket headed by Judson Harmon and also a working majority in both branches of the legislature.
